

Christ the Saviour Monastery

Monk's Quarters & Monastic Garden

To left, View from front, at left, Russian Orthodox Church of Our Lady of Glastonbury, to right Monastic Quarters for Christ the Saviour Monastery (Christminster); Right Centre is the sign above Main entrance for Christminster. Below is stained glass above main entrance;

Christminster has adequate facilities for visitors and fully modern conveniences. To the rear of the Monastery is a Monastic Garden (pictured below.)

L - R; Monk's Cell (typical); Attached full washrooms; Views to front of Scriptorium; laundry facilities

Clockwise from upper left; A quite moment in Monastic Garden after Mass in the seating area under the trellis; Cedar Hedge a flower bed and iron fence with gate separates the Monastic Garden from the parking area; The Fountain with Celtic Cross is situated across from the seating area; Dom James Deschene in a quite moment; A visitor relaxes in one of the Muskoka Chairs after Sunday Mass; The Refectory for Christminster is situated next door and there is ample parking in the paved area to side and back.

